Winner—B. g. by St. George—Levee.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next three were driving hard. George Lee ran right to his notch. This is the third race he has had in deep mud in as many days showing that he is a colt of great stamina. Holden rode a good race. He waited patiently and never made his move until the stretch was reached. The colt then galloped over those in front as though they were tired. Vice Regal hung on gamely. He seemed to falter at the eighth post but came on again gamely under punishment. Double Dummy and Sunburst had a battle royal for third place. Both were as tired as they possibly could be. Hampden stopped to a walk the last sixteenth. After betting had been in progress about ten minutes it was discovered that George Lee's weight was wrong and a new book was made.

Overweights—Sunburst, 4 pounds; Nannie L's Sister, 3.

Corrected Weight—George Lee, 95 pounds.

George Lee, place, 3 to 2; show, 3 to 5. Vice Regal, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Double Dummy, show, 4 to 5.

9198 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—B. g. by Fabulous—Rupe.

Off at first break to a good start. It was a driving finish. Judge Wofford should have won. He was a full length to the good at the sixteenth pole, but little Reiff was too tired to hold the colt's head up and he stumbled badly. This cost him the race. Fascade improved suddenly since his last performance. Still, he likes a route and that accounts for his success. Rio Chico showed his usual speed, but could not last the route. He was very tired at the finish. Charlo did well as far as he went.

Overweights—Ponchatula, 2 pounds.

Fascade, place, 4 to 5. Judge Wofford, place, 3 to 5. Rio Chico, show, 1 to 2.

9199 THIRD RACE—5-8 Mile. All Ages. Handicap. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—Ch. g. by Hanover—Blessing.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were driving. Montgomery is a wonder in the mud. He stepped the first quarter in 25 and that's all there was to the race. Martin sat still on Montgomery the last quarter. Boney Boy was wretchedly ridden. He was in and out and all over the track. Considering this his was a good race. O'Connell did well. It was a three horse race all the way.

Scratched—Donna Rita, 107; Rio Chico, 85.

Boney Boy, place, 9 to 20.

9200 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. The Cicero Stakes $1,000 added; value to winner $1,230; $100 to second; $200 to third; $100 to fourth.

Winner—Ch. h. by Spendthrift—Llandrino.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won pulled to a walk; second and third driving to the limit. As far as first place was concerned there was nothing to the race. Boanerges went to the front at the start and galloped all the way. Dr. Sheppard was well ridden. He had to be to get the place. Dunois was running fast at the finish. He has learned lately to like the mud. Found ran if not fit. She stopped before going a half mile. David Tenny was anchored in the going.

Overweights—David Tenny, 2 pounds.

Boanerges, place, 1 to 2. Dr. Sheppard, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Dunois, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Eolus—Gladiola.

Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly; second and third driving hard. Al Fresco ran a good race. It was right in line, too. His last race was a good one and showed that he was rounding to. Taking this into consideration, his price was far out of line. McNickle rode the colt to perfection. He lay in a good position and saved a lot of ground on the stretch turn. On the other hand, the boys on Elidad and Great Bend went wide. There was no choice in the going, and it was a waste of ground. Great Bend evidently staled a bit from his hard race of the day before. Eva Rice and Plantain were beaten off. Great Bend carried five pounds penalty for his win of the previous day.

Scratched—Moch, 85; Good Friend, 87; Exquisite, 82; Dulac, 85.

Al Fresco, place, 2 to 1; show, 1 to 2. Elidad, place, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Enquirer—Bonnie Meade.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second and third were driving. Newgatherer came to life with a start. He was well ridden, though, and took the shortest route. Bloss saved a lot of ground on the stretch turn. That is why Newgatherer won. Lord Zeni acted at the post as if stimulated. He lunged and reared and was almost unmanageable. He had a lot of speed but not enough. Glenmoynes was right there all the way. In fact, the race was always between the first three.

Overweights—Newgatherer, 4 pounds; Lord Zeni, 4.

Newgatherer, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Lord Zeni, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Glenmoynes, show, even.

HARLEM'S CLOSING DAY.

Chicagoans have become so used to being taken unawares that when "the boat is off" sounded down the line, following the announcement that yesterday would see the close of the season's racing at Harlem, scarcely a word of dissatisfaction was heard.

Col. M. Lewis Clark declared off bets on the first race because George Lee was to carry 95 instead of 93 pounds, as posted.

George Lee's price in the second book was always 4 to 1; in the first book he had been at a shorter price. Vice Regal and Hampden made the running and up the backstretch Sunburst (who left the post in the rear) and Double Dummy were close up. On the far turn George Lee came from the rear and always on the extreme outside while the others hugged the rails he found them anchored at the last sixteenth and galloping on won as he pleased from Vice Regal, second, Double Dummy, third, Sunburst and Hampden being lapped on the latter; the others beaten off. Pitfall was up at the sixteenth "absolutely."

The sun came out as the horses left the paddock for the second race and thereafter the afternoon was bright. Judge Wofford was a pronounced favorite, but Facade was also backed down and Rio Chico, scratched from the handicap, received strong support. The last named colt led from the start to the last eighth, then Judge Wofford headed him and as Sink's colt quit the race seemed over. At the betting ring, however, Facade was on the leader's saddle and McNickle sitting still, while J. Reiff on the favorite floundered all over his horse. Close to the wire the positions were changed, Judge Wofford swerving and so losing the race to Facade. Rio Chico, third, beat the others off. Charlo was second to the middle of the upper turn.

For the handicap "even money the field" was posted first of all, an unusual way of opening the betting. Surely, Montgomery carried enough weight as although his allotment was two pounds below the scale, he was giving Billy Mason twenty-five pounds, High T st seventeen and O'Connell four. Boney Boy, however, gave the favorite six pounds, but notwithstanding this was second choice in the betting. At the fourth attempt a good start was effected. Montgomery went out as if carrying a feather and plowing through the mud with tremendous power he won the race by ten lengths pulling up. O'Connell was second half way home, when Boney Boy came in and beat him easily. The others were never in it.

The last fixture of the local racing year was "The Cicero," $1,000 added, a selling stake for all ages at the distance of one mile. It was worth to the winner $1,230, to the second $300, to the third $100. F. und, running in the name and colors of Doré Schneider, was the opening favorite at 7 to 5. Boanerges standing at 9 to 5, Danois at 5 to 1, Dr. Sheppard 10 to 1, as also David Tenny. Boanerges went to the post the favorite at 7 to 5. Found having backed up to 2 to 1. The lady owner of the latter is said to be a step daughter of John Huffman. It didn't look reasonable that in such putty-like going a filly could hold her own with entire horses, and Found, after staying in company with Dr. Sheppard for five-eighths of a mile, quit to nothing and finished pulled up with David Tenny, who was last all the way. Boanerges had gone to the front at flag fall and he led the entire journey, winning pulled to a walk by twenty lengths from Dr. Sheppard, who was always second, although Dun is had him driving from the entry to the straight. The horses ran Indian file up the backstretch, an open length separating all. Patsy Freeman, a new arrival, rode Dr. Sheppard.

Elidad, having opened at 8 to 5 and advanced to 2 to 1, Colonel Clark substituted Jockey Holden for Bethersell. The betting, however, remained unchanged. Great Bend, carrying a penalty of five pounds for winning Friday, was backed from 11 to 10 down to even money, while the others were practically neglected. Plantain went to the turn in the lead, Eva Rice second, Great Bend third. At the half mile ground Elidad took command, and, followed by Great Bend, the leaders opened five lengths into the homestretch on the others. Eva Rice had far less away long before and Plantain had shot his bolt. Nobody thought of Al Freco. The great crowd "pulled" and "squeezed" for one or the other of the struggling racers, but Elidad, although hard pressed, held Great Bend safe, and the grandstand rang with praise of Colonel Clark, as its occupants always "set down" when the Kentucky Colonel changed jockeys. And surely at the betting ring Elidad was winning. But now, as the leaders came down on the outside and were just moving, on came a horse galloping strongly in the middle of the course, and onlookers could not believe their senses, as with "b" end turned to "dough" the backers of the favorites saw the unknown canter past the post, a winner by several lengths. This horse was Al Freco, a good colt in the spring and lately rested up. His win was a "da ling" for the bookies.

The "b" end handicap was won by News-gatherer, who led from post to finish. Bloss, on the winner, quite out-neraled the jockeys on Gleamoyne and Lord Zeni for as the three named horses swung into the homestretch closely together News-gatherer was taken close to the inside rail, saving many lengths as the others went out for the path. It was thus he was enabled to win from Lord Zeni in a hard drive Gleamoyne finished third, Refuge fourth. The race was the heaviest played of the day, Mooreith supposedly being a good thing. There were several breakaways, the gate being broken and the start made without its aid.

Winner—Ch. g. by Great Tom—Castilla.

Start good. Won handily. Baby Bill stayed the route best and was cleverly handled. Royal Scarlet was good, but stopped to a walk in the last half. He dislikes a long route. Trillion prefers fast going and tired in the mud today, but he is game and can stay. He was coming again at the end.

Baby Bill, place, 7 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Stonehenge—Bassinette.

Start bad. Won easily. Blarneystone was probably the best, although he was lucky in the sendoff and cleverly handled. Diminutive, off poorly and worse handled, was the best of the others. She closed a big gap and is very good in mud. Miss Miriam beat the gate but was taken back on the turn and got a bad looking ride. Acushla had no chance at the start. She tired badly and showed distaste for the going. Armament was off poorly and is in bad form now.

Scratched—Warrenton, 130; St. Callatine, 123; Marsia n, 115; Geisha, 112; Takanassee, 108; Tyrian, 106.

Blarneystone, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Diminutive, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Miss Miriam, show, 3 to 5.
